Toys and Dolls Enough in This Great Toy Store to Supply All the Children Santa Claus Is Going to Remember.

THIS Toy Store is not only Santa Claus' Headquarters and a place for the children, but everybody is welcome-tor certainly no one can resist the joy of it all-they will go away feeling much better and happier than they were when they entered it.

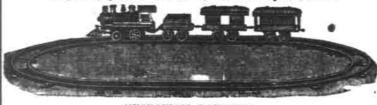

Here are the choicest Toys that Boys and Girls will want—a more complete showing than we have ever had before. With all the great outgoing that has been steadily increasing for the last six weeks there are still so many that you would hardly believe any had been sold at all.

Today we are only going to talk about a half dozen items, and three of these are dolls but come to the Toy Store today and see all the vast stocks.

With the Washington Churches

A new Christmas cantais, "The Eve of Grace," the text by Van Tassel Stuphen, the music by J. Sebastian Matthews, will be sung by the Cathedral choir at the Bethlehem Chapel on Sunday, December 22, at 4 o'clock, in place of the evening service.

The composer has written the Cathedral choirmaster, Edgar Priest, saying that this will be the first presentation of the work anywhere, and that he will most likely be present to hear it.
The soloists will be Master Howard
Young, soprano; Dr. Henry Jaeger, tenor;
Henry H. Tallmadge, barytone, and Warission cards are not required.

A corporate communion of the parish of Anacostia (Emmanuel Episcopal Church) will be made at the II o'clock celebration of the Holy Encharist tomorrow, the fourth Sunday in Advent. The sermon on this occasion will be delivered by Rev. John M. E. McKee, who was the first rector of the parish, officiating as such in 1871. The litany office will be recited by Rev. W. G. Davenport, rector emericals. Rev. W. G. Davenport, rector emerique.

The music will be under the direction of William Scantlebury, who assumed the position of choirmaster the lat of December. In lieu of the "Gloria in Excelsia." the choir will sing the hymn. "Bleat Be the Tie Which Binds." it being the custom in Advent and Lent to sing a hymn as being more suitable for meditation. The singing of this hymn will be most appropriate for the occasion, the first rector, rector emeritus, and the present rector all administering the Biessed Sacrament to the parishloners.

The vested choir of men and boys of James Stoddart at the organ, will render a program of music on Christmas day, at 19:20 a. m. The solists are: Soprano, Masters Alan Boyd and Haskell Billings; a program of music on Christmas day, at 10:20 a. m. The solists are: Soprano, Masters Alan Boyd and Haskell Billings: bass, W. Roland Carter.

St. Mark's Church will have the usual Christmas services on Friday, beginning with the celebration of the holy communion at 6:20 a. m. At this service a volunteer choir of women will sing. There will be a second celebration without music at 8 o'clock and at 11 o'clock there will be a festival communion service, when the regular choir of men and boys will sing.

The Narrative.

The paragraph for our Christmas less straw has the cast straw has the ox.

(8) And the sucking child shall play on the hole of the asp, and the weaned the we celebrate the lowliness of the birth of Christ, that we should also thus lift our eyes, aided by the inspired teaching of the ancient prophet, and look forward to the ultimate victory of that coming. The full limit is not yet, but it is assured. This wonderful passage from the prophecy of the great prophet of the Divine government and grace, gives us a clear vision of the ultimate goal of our work, so far as this earth is concerned. In the light of all the teaching of the course of the year's lessons, we
